Press release:

4-time Huntersville Commissioner makes it official and registers to run for mayor of Huntersville

In a simple meeting at the Mecklenburg County Board of elections, Brian Sisson, made it official today, as he registered to run for Mayor of Huntersville., with his wife Tricia at his side.

As the first candidate to register to run for Mayor of Huntersville, Sisson stated that he, "looks forward to a good and positive election, that will show the differences between myself and the current Mayor. People will realize that my discussions of improving roads and infrastructure, are not hollow comments, that would be quickly overshadowed by the wants of special interests."

Sisson reminds everyone to get out and vote on November 3rd.
